

Autism Friendly Community Training Request

Organization Name:

Contact Person:

Phone: Address:

Email:

What led you to request training:

Preferred training dates and times-please provide at least two options:

Trainings Options:

Autism 101- *$500 per training

- Education on autism characteristics and statistics
- Sensory simulation experience
- "A Day in the Life" perspective
- Autism Society of Southern Arizona services and programs overview
- Autism Friendly Community certification seal for website
- Autism resources materials for your organization ($25 per trainee)

Add a Specialized Trainings – additional $1,000 per training- select all that you wish to receive

Schools:

- Training conducted by a Board Certified Behavioral Analyst (BCBA)
- Classroom strategies and intervention techniques
- Manual: training slides, worksheets, screening tools, informational sheets and resources
- Individualized case review with BCBA during training

Camps:

- Training conducted by a Board Certified Behavioral Analyst (BCBA)
- Manual: training slides, worksheets, informational sheets and resources
- Learn strategies to create an inclusive environment: sensory considerations, communication challenges, engagement techniques and considerations
- Site evaluation and recommendations

Special Education Rights:

- Training conducted by a disability attorney from Arizona Center of Disability Law
 - Explanation of special education rights and laws
 - Special education options, procedures and processes
 - Role of the parent/caregiver
- Manual: training slides, accommodation suggestions, explanation of terms, laws and rights, letter templates and resources
- Individualized case discussion with disability attorney

Community Facilities (libraries, museums, stores, entertainment venues etc):

- Training conducted by a Board Certified Behavioral Analyst (BCBA)
- Creating an inclusive environment: sensory considerations, communication challenges, engagement techniques and considerations
- Site evaluation and recommendations

Sport Teams:

- Training conducted by a Board Certified Behavioral Analyst (BCBA)
- Creating an inclusive environment: sensory considerations, communication challenges, engagement techniques and considerations
- Manual: training slides, worksheets, informational sheets, resources

Police Departments:

- Training conducted by an Investigative Specialist from Chandler Police Department
 - Provides officers with credible, relevant information necessary to interact with individuals diagnosed with Autism, Down Syndrome and Fetal Alcohol Syndrome
 - Body worn camera footage, didactic session, and first hand perspectives
- Sensory scene management
- De-escalation strategies & communication tips/suggestions
- Distinctive search and rescue challenges; searching for the non-verbal
- Critical questions for dispatch and officers to ask parents/caregivers

Medical Providers:

- Training conducted by a Developmental Pediatrician
- Recognizing the signs of autism
- Managing sensory needs and communication challenges while providing medical care
- Manual: training slides, worksheets, screening tools, informational sheets and resources

Fire and EMT Departments:

- Training conducted by Board Certified Behavioral Analyst (BCBA) or therapist in the field
- Managing sensory needs and communication challenges while providing services
- De-escalation strategies & communication tips/suggestions

Thank you for your interest in joining the Autism Friendly Community. We will be in contact soon to schedule your training.

Cost reflected covers manuals for 10 trainees. Trainee materials are $25 per person and will be added to the total agreement if more are required. Outside of Tucson City limits requires a daily fee of $400 for travel/expenses.*